2. Prior to December 1954, no military units were observed at Zamberk (P 51/H 20). The former Adler Kaserne ("Orlice kasárny") was occupied by female air force personnel who wore blue uniforms with caps and were trained in signal communication. A recruiting district headquarters was located about 300 meters south of the main square and west of the road to Letohrad (formerly Kysnerk, P 51/H 29). The superior headquarters with deputy commanding officer Captain Petrák (fnu) was in Hradec Králové. No Czech frontier guard units (PS) were observed in the area between Zamberk and the Polish-Czech border. 2
3. The installation at Techonín (Linsdorf, P 51/H 30), which had been built in 1936 as a fort battalion station, was occupied by about 500 Greek refugees after 1954. Prior to that date, the building quartered Czech units. 3 Three office buildings were occupied by officers and their families from Prague who lived on their pensions. General Talavania (fnu) was one of them.
4. Prior to late 1954, the former Walter textile factory on the northwestern perimeter of Kralupy (Grulich, P 51/H 40) was occupied by a technical unit, which tested engines. A guard detail was stationed in the so-called "Stadthof" on the main square. Personnel of an unidentified branch of service were quartered in Sanov (Schoenau, P 51/H 41). In the 1930's, an installation had been built there which could quarter a battalion. 4
5. The installation at Rokytnice (Rokitnitz, P 51/H 21) which had been built in 1935, was occupied by an infantry school. Either reserve officers or NCOs practiced there. The building could quarter an infantry battalion.

6. In November 1954, numerous motor vehicles were observed at the installation on the northern perimeter of Rychnov nad Kneznou (O 51/H 00), west of the road to Solnice (O 51/H 01), which had been built for an infantry regiment in the 1930's. At the time of observation, the installation was occupied by motorized infantry personnel. No armored vehicles were seen. Major Janderka (fnu) was on duty at the installation. 5
7. In late 1954, a motorized artillery unit was observed at the installation in Kostelec nad Orlici (Adler Kosteletz, O 51/H 00), 500 meters east-northeast of the station and south of the road to Vamberk (O 51/H 00). Light guns without muzzle brake and trucks were parked at the installation. The former Bednar textile factory situated between the station and the church in Vamberk was occupied by soldiers with black epaulets. The unit was concerned with motor vehicle repairs.
8. In the fall of 1954, construction work was observed at the installation in Dobruska (Dobruschka, O 51/G 92), which quartered a school for security personnel. The installation had been built for a battalion in the 1930's. 7
9. Prior to the fall of 1954, an old four-story building on the southern edge of the main square in Hradec Kralove was occupied by a headquarters. Sedans were observed there. Before the war, the building had been occupied by a division headquarters. Prior to 1954, the former 4th Inf Regt Kaserne at Hradec Kralove was occupied by infantry units. The units were not motorized. 8 25X1
1. Comment. The occupation of the former Salesian monastery by AAA units is confirmed. A training unit of the well-known organization for pre-military training (Svazarm) in Brank is reported for the first time. It has been reported previously, however, that several Svazarm training camps were located in the vicinity of Prague, 25X1
2. Comment. Previous reports stating that no Czech frontier guard units were observed at the Polish-Czech border are confirmed. 25X1
3. Comment. The installation at Techonin (Linsdorf) had formerly been occupied by infantry details. Its present civilian occupation is reported for the first time. 25X1
4. Comment. These installations are reported for the first time. 25X1
5. Comment. The occupation of the installation by units of a mechanized regiment probably belonging to the 8th Mec Div, is confirmed. Major Janderka is reported for the first time. 25X1
6. Comment. It is confirmed that this installation is occupied by artillery units. 25X1
7. Comment. The installation at Dobruska (Dobruschka) is known. It has been reported for the first time that the installation is allegedly occupied by a school for security units. 25X1
8. Comment. A headquarters stationed in Kralove (Koeniggratz) is reported for the first time. The occupation of the well-known installation of the former 4th Inf Regt cannot be identified. 25X1
